

Meadow Pollack

TWEET

Anyeli Santos
@anyelisantos

Follow

Hi Meadow, I'm so sorry that you can't become a lawyer like you wanted to due to the tragedy that happened that day. It breaks my heart the horrible thing that happened to you can happen to anyone. I hope you rest in peace; we wish you were here with us.

Reply Retweet Favorite More

5:09 PM - 14 Feb 2018

LIFE

Meadow Pollack was 18 when she was killed at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. Meadow had been accepted at Lynn University in Boca Raton to start her career as a lawyer. Meadow covered another student in an attempt to protect them. Meadow was thought of as a lovely young woman who was full of energy.

AMENDMENT

The Second amendment gives the people the right to bear arms, but gun violence is out of control. There has been an increase of mass murders happening everywhere due to guns. They say guns are for protection but really murder always seems to be a part of it. This can be reduced if we allow background checks for everyone who purchases a gun. If we allowed red flag laws to be passed, we can petition the permanent removal of firearms from a person who may have a serious mental illness or who are a danger to others and themselves.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.