

Ethel Lance

TWEET

Barbara Montenegro
@barbaramontenegro

Following

Hello Ethel, I wanted to tell you that your children and grandchildren have made a great effort to keep your legacy alive. They've done a great job focusing people's attention on the person you were, not the way that you died. May you rest in peace.

Reply Retweet Favorite More

4:52 PM - 5 Nov 2017 ·

LIFE

Ethel Lance was one of the nine victims killed in AME church in Charleston, South Carolina. As a 70-year-old woman, churchgoers say she went to church every single day. Her life was taken away from her brutally, in a place she held dear to her heart. Ethel was cousins with 80- year-old Susie Jackson, who was also murdered. Ethel's five children and their kids visit every memorial made in her honor.

AMENDMENT

The second amendment should be changed to fit the society we live in currently. We have enough safeguards in our constitution to protect us against tyranny, the main goal the founders had when they wrote the amendment in 1791. The answer seems clear, that military weapons should not be civilianized and made legal for us to buy. There is no reason for citizens to have weapons of mass murder. There is no reason for the mentally unstable own weapons legally. We must constantly update gun licenses, enforce background checks, and create red flag laws.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.