Mr. Bishop, it was a tragedy what happened that day. We are trying to prevent things like this not just from happening in schools, but to prevent it from happening in our country altogether. May you rest in peace.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.

LIFE

Jamie Bishop, age 35, was Virginia Tech's introductory German teacher in Virginia Tech University. He was popular among his students and was always willing to give his students individual attention if they were ever in need of help. He was brimming with passion for teaching, art, and the environment. His classes were exceptionally rigorous, but he was an easy-going, loving person. Sadly, he was among the 32 victims of the Virginia Tech shooting on April 16, 2007.

AMENDMENT

I think that there should be a law or an amendment that authorizes the government to check and control the selling of guns, maybe some law that protects the people that have mental illness. We have seen that most of the people that are responsible for mass shootings suffer from mental illness, so the gun shops should check and investigate deeply the people that buy weapons. I probably would have made the following amendment: "The people have the right to bear arms but they must pass an obligatory process of investigation of their records that should take no less than one month of length, after the process the citizen is able to get the gun if you have been a citizen for at least 1 year."
