LIFE

Melanie Crow Smith was a sweet, caring person, as described by neighbors and family. She had a deep love for her children, and had many good friends. Her life was taken too soon when a gunman fatally shot her as she was leaving the Burnette Chapel Church of Christ, leaving behind her husband and two kids.

AMENDMENT

The Second Amendment gives us the right to own and bear firearms to use for our defense. However, when this right is repeatedly abused by people with malicious intentions, it is the nation's job to put laws and regulations in place that can prevent these people from carrying out plans that cause devastation in the lives of so many.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.
