You were an amazing human being, I would want to meet you, we are so alike, like how we are both very religious and loving. You were a legend.

LIFE

Suveg was an 81 year old born in India and was a farmer. He moved into the United States 8 years before the incident. He was at the temple most of the time, his son who was a taxi driver would take him there every day. He was very loving and had hatred for nobody.

AMENDMENT

I think that the second amendment (right to bear arms) needs to be stronger in the way that they need to do background checks before you sell any weapons to anybody. They need to make it stronger by asking for their medical record or something similar.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.
