

Olivia Engel

LIFE

Olivia Engel was a creative and loving little girl who always enjoyed designing and drawing different things. She had a lovely sense of humor and an ever-present laughter that could light up an entire room. She never failed to be a bright source of joy to everyone around her. She was sadly taken from us too soon on December 14, 2012 in the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting. She will forever be loved, remembered and missed in the hearts of all those who knew her.

Olivia, you were so young with a whole life ahead of you. We are so sorry someone ended it senselessly, but we are trying to stop these tragedies from happening. May you rest in peace.

STATISTIC

Another senseless death.

AMENDMENT

I think that there should be a law or an amendment that authorizes the government to check and control the selling of guns, maybe some law that protects the people that have mental illness. We have seen that most of the people that are responsible for mass shootings suffer from mental illness, so the gun shops should check and investigate deeply the people that buy weapons. I probably would have made the following amendment: "The people have the right to bear arms but they must pass an obligatory process of investigation of their records that should take no less than one month of length, after the process the citizen is able to get the gun if you have been a citizen for at least 1 year."
